First Baby of 2020

Ruby May Ann Lindsay is the first baby of 2020 born at Norfolk General Hospital. Ruby was delivered by Caesarean-section at 8:27am on January 2 weighing in at 8lbs 14oz.

This is the second child for Amilia Lindsay, 29 and husband Andrew, 31 of Nanticoke. Their son Henry also born at NGH is almost 2 and “is excited as a boy can be about having a baby sister” according to mom.

As for her experience at NGH “It has been wonderful. Love Dr. Ferguson, the nurses. We are very lucky to have this hospital close by” said Amilia from her bed at NGH.

Amilia, an employee with Haldimand County Library and Andrew, a Stelco employee wish to thank physicians Dr. Brian Ferguson, Dr. John Evans and Dr. David Roukema, also nurses Andrea Holden, Pat Phillips, Ruth Driedger, Janice Snively, Felicia Davies and RT Angie Miller.

The NGH Board of Directors marked the occasion by presenting Ruby with an engraved horse carousel bank. Ruby also received a beautiful baby blanket from the Volunteer Association to Norfolk General Hospital and Norfolk Hospital Nursing Home Knitters group.
