Psychiatrist(s) – Full & Part Time Position(s) Available

Community Description

Haldimand and Norfolk Counties are southerly counties in Ontario, Canada. Located on the shores of Lake Erie, they are home to approximately 110,000 residents. Norfolk is known as Ontario's Garden. A mix of rural and small town, this area hosts a wide range of outdoor and cultural activities (e.g. hiking/biking trails, beaches fishing, boating, theatre, wineries, world biosphere reserve). Close to the urban areas of Hamilton, Toronto and London, it offers the pleasure of a rural environment with easy urban access.

Organization Description

CAMHS is the ambulatory Mental Health and Addiction (MH&A) service for Haldimand and Norfolk, offering psychiatric/addiction assessment, consultation and treatment, community and individual education, and peer support for persons dealing with such issues. The position identified is with the Adult Mental Health Program.

Candidates will require Royal College certification, be licensable in the Province of Ontario, and will have experience working with a multidisciplinary team.

Compensation: Fee for Service (under-service category) with sessional support. An academic appointment with McMaster University can be considered.
