BMO commits $100,000 to Building a Better Hospital

A visit from BMO last Thursday afternoon will go a long way in ensuring quality healthcare at Norfolk General Hospital Foundation through the Building a Better Hospital Campaign. BMO Financial Group strongly believes in a responsibility to help improve the communities in which they do business. Being a good corporate citizen is an extremely important component of their overall success, and they aspire to be key contributors the strength and success of our communities.

"Today provides us with a truly remarkable opportunity to help our hard working hospital to provide health care in our local community" stated Daniel Monid, BMO Regional Vice President Personal Banking "BMO has always recognized the importance of health and wellness to communities, and our donation today will help NGH keep pace with a changing healthcare system and provide our community with a local state-of-the-art healthcare facility."

Mr. Monid, accompanied by BMO staff, was pleased to present a cheque for $100,000 to Julie Powell, NGH Foundation Director of Development in support of the Building a Better Hospital campaign. "The Foundation gratefully acknowledges the spirit in which this support is given. This kind of generosity from BMO demonstrates the value of our hospital to the people of Norfolk."
