Simcoe Lions Deliver Next Installment Toward Pledge of Support

The Simcoe Lions Club delivered another installment in their pledge of support to the Norfolk General Hospital Foundation's Building a Better Hospital Campaign. On Wednesday August 22 Bill Easdown, Club President and Brook Shafto, Lions 500 Club Chair presented $15,000 to Jennifer White, NGH Foundation Director. The Club is committed to donating $75,000 over 5 years. This latest installment brings the Lions within $30,000 of their pledge.

"We will always be proud to support worthy programs that make our community a better place to live. And, what is more worthy than supporting strong health care in Norfolk?" explained Easdown.

"The project will see the building of a new Surgical Day Care unit and the renovation and revitalization our Labour & Delivery Unit and a Minimally Invasive Operating Room" stated White about the Building a Better Campaign while thanking the Lions, "The funding for the Campaign must come from the community and the generous contribution of the Simcoe Lions Club demonstrates local commitment to better local health care for everyone."
