NGH Welcomes New Chief of Staff

Tom White Chair of the Norfolk General Hospital Board of Directors is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Amir Sheik-Yousouf as the new Chief of Staff.

“We are delighted to welcome Dr. Sheik-Yousouf to NGH” stated White “We look forward to his energy and passion on our team and have the greatest confidence in his representing our hospital and community. The Board would also like to express its’ appreciation to Dr. Nancy Gabel for her commitment and dedication as Chief over the past 6 years.”

Amir Sheik-Yousouf is a graduate of the Rotman School of Business having completed his Executive MBA in July 2017. He is a Fellow of the Royal College in Internal Medicine at the University of Toronto working initially in an academic setting at Sunnybrook Hospital. He has worked in a community setting in Milton District Hospital for the past 5 years and continues to maintain an office practice in Milton.

Dr. Sheik-Yousouf was born in the United Kingdom to parents of Mauritian descent. Having completed high school in Mauritius, he was awarded a full scholarship to study Medicine at Nishtar Medical College, Multan, Pakistan. Completing his MBBS in 2004, this was followed by a one-year internship at the Pakistan Institute of Medical Science, Islamabad completed in November 2005. He immigrated to Canada in 2006.

Dr. Sheik-Yosouf will begin his duties as Chief of Staff on June 3.
