TD Lends Support to Building a Better Hospital

The Norfolk General Hospital Foundation is enthused by the TD Bank Group's efforts to make a lasting difference in the communities in which its employees and customers live and work. Monday afternoon January 25, TD employees presented a gift of $50,000 to the NGH Foundation for their Building a Better Hospital Campaign to assist in the enhanced delivery of health care locally.

"TD is proud to support the Norfolk General Hospital's Building a Better Hospital Campaign as it will significantly enhance local health care delivery," said Christine Gardner, District Vice President, TD Canada Trust. "The wellbeing of our communities is an important focus for us and this gift will help accommodate exciting advances in healthcare here in Norfolk County"

Julie Powell NGH Foundation Director of Development stated "This generous gift demonstrates TD's desire to see communities thrive, supporting our campaign will make an enduring impact on the care NGH provides today and for future generations."

The Building a Better Hospital Campaign will revitalize, renovate and expand the Obstetrical Unit, Minimally invasive Surgery and Surgical Day Care areas.
