

Posting No.: C2022-06RP

Posting Date: July 21, 2022

Position Title: Clinician – Telemedicine Services

Rate of Pay: $33.97 - $41.12

Position Status: Full Time

Responsibilities

The primary responsibility will be to provide clinical and related services to people aged 16 and older with mental health concerns. Supports the development of evidence-based best practice clinical service excellence and acts as a liaison and consultant to other health care facilities/organizations, physicians, caregivers and co-workers regarding patient care, health services, professional practice and education. While functioning as a member of a community-based interdisciplinary team contributing appropriate discipline specific knowledge and skills. Duties include:

- Maintain a clinical caseload
- Act as the organization's point of contact for clinical telemedicine and responsible for the delivery of high quality telemedicine services within the agency
- Developing expertise in the use and care of the telemedicine equipment and troubleshooting technical problems
- Act as liaison/point of contact with OTN: updates for network, policies, contact information etc. and disseminate internally (as necessary)
- Complete client centered physical, functional, and psychiatric assessments, provide consultation, treatment, follow up and discharge planning as it relates to a client being served by the telemedicine program; review and evaluate the treatment and ongoing care in consultation with client and caregiver/care provider
- Monitor treatment modalities of efficacy and adverse reactions including pharmacological and non-pharmacological interventions
- Monitor and document client's progress and response to therapeutic interventions; facilitate information flow in the consultation process to physicians and community partners
- Education and maintenance support of OTN equipment
- Participates in team activities related to clinical care and team function, including OTN training sessions, OTN site readiness assessments, and OTN regional telemedicine conference meetings and communities of practice, etc.
- Participates in activities related to program/organizational development, community/client education, relevant statistical data gathering
- Participates in research within scope
- Involved in group or other treatment modalities as appropriate to patient population and skill level
- Provide consultation and support in relation the mental health and addictions issues to individuals, health professionals, agencies, and community groups
- Supports, precepts, and aids colleagues, students and others to provide evidence-based best practice clinical service excellence
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Member in good standing with the College of Nurses of Ontario with a baccalaureate level of post-secondary education in Nursing;
- Post graduate certificate in psychiatric nursing preferred
- Minimum 3 years recent related clinical experience
- Demonstrated understanding of The Mental Health Act of Ontario
- Demonstrated sound knowledge and understanding of community mental health client service needs and treatment modalities
- Demonstrated excellent clinical acumen, critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Demonstrated excellent interpersonal and organizational skills
- Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively
- A valid driver's license.

Hours of Work

Must be available for all shifts, including weekends and holidays.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter and updated resume to the Human Resources Department, or email to CAMHSRESUMES@NGH.ON.CA, referring to the above posting no later than:

Internal Candidates: 1600 on July 21, 2022

External Candidates: 1600 on Until Filled

*All positions will comply and work in conjunction with the Mission, Vision, Goals and Objectives of Community Addiction and Mental Health Services of Haldimand & Norfolk (CAMHS)
...partnering for Mental Health and Addiction Wellness*

In order to ensure equal opportunities during the recruitment and selection process, CAMHS provides accommodations for applicants with disabilities, upon request.